Modification of the time of the visit

Visitors may change the previously booked time slots without extra fee of charge until the day prior to the visit by using the administrative interface. We are not able to refund the cost of admission fee upon cancellation in this case.

Cancellation by the Parliament

The visit can be cancelled due to programs of the Parliament or state protocol events even directly before the visit. The Office of the National Assembly release the information of cancellation on the website and on the booking system interface within the shortest possible time. If you have submitted an e-mail address during your registration, you will be informed via e-mail as well. In this case the already paid admission fees will be reimbursed.

Important information

1. Upon entering the Parliament, you are kindly requested to produce nationality documents and proof of eligibility for any discounts.
2. Tickets can be purchased at the ticket office either in cash (Hungarian forints (HUF)) or by bank/credit card.
3. A security check is required prior to entering the House of Parliament. You must not enter the building with large bags, packages or objects capable of causing personal injury, such as pocket knives, knives, gas spray etc. It is forbidden to enter the building with weapons, firearms, ammunition, explosives, blasting agents or related devices, or any pyrotechnic devices.

4. When entering the premises, visitors are only allowed to have in their hand luggage a colourless, non-alcoholic drink, liquid medication or other special food (e.g. baby food, baby formula) in a unbreakable plastic bottle of a maximum volume of 0.5 litres. This must be taken out of the baggage for a security check. Any bottles with a content, of a material or size different from the above must be left in the cloakroom.
5. Parliament is accessible to people with disabilities. In order to ensure smooth access, we kindly request that visitors in wheelchairs inform our staff about their arrival in advance by e-mail at idegenforgalom@parlament.hu.
6. Apart from guide dogs, no other animals are permitted inside the Building.
7. For the protection of the Holy Crown, it is strictly forbidden to take pictures in the great Dome Hall. However, taking pictures or using video cameras is allowed in other parts of the Building.
8. Please ask for cloakrooms or left luggage lockers in the Visitor Center.
9. Lavatories for visitors are at the Visitor Center.
10. Due to parliamentary or state events, visits may be cancelled even as late as immediately prior to admission.
11. Cars and coaches cannot park in front of the Parliament Building.
12. Visitors treated with radioactive isotopes for a curative purpose must provide us with an official hospital discharge summary issued by the given medical institution confirming the administering of the treatment. The summary must contain the following data: the type and name of the radioactive substance used, the dates of its administering, and a confirmation that the person having been given the treatment is permitted to attend public events.
If a visitor is unable to provide the above document, the Parliamentary Guard has the right to deny his or her admission.

Behavioural and dressing code

The dignity of the Building requires all visitors to have cultured dressing code.

It is forbidden:

- to wear or use totalitarian symbols, to behave as to injure the national value and dignity of the National Assembly, the Holy Crown, and the coronation jewels, or to infringe human dignity;
- to take in flags, demonstration signs, tools into the Building;
- to present noisy and overbearing behaviour, to sing, to held demonstration;
- to eat, drink and to smoke;
